ELEMENTARY SCHOOL VOLLEYBALL
INTERNATIONAL REF SIGNALS

Call	Definition	Signal
Centre Line Fault	Complete crossing of the center line or the vertical plane under the nets. Stepping into the opponent=s court or contacting the ball or an opponent on the opponent=s court.	Point to the center line and at the same time indicate with the Aservice@ signal to the opponents= side; point to the player who committed the fault.
Four Hits	The ball is contacted four times by the same team.	Raise four fingers.
Double Fault	Fault committed simultaneously by two players from opposing teams - or a replay of the service.	Raise upward the thumbs of both hands.
Point	Point	Raise index finger and arm on the side of the team which supports the point.
Service - Ball Fault	Ball contacting the net at the time of service.	Touch the net with the hand.

(807) 625-5264
www.sssaa.com
130 Churchill Drive W.
Thunder Bay, ON P7C 1V3

Net Touch	Player touching the net.	Touch the net with the hand and point to the player who committed the fault.
Ball Out	The ball is OUT outside the antennas and/or the court - outside the vertical net markers - touching the antennas	Raise the forearm in a vertical position, hands open, palms facing downward.
Over the Net	Hitting the ball over the opponent=s court or an illegal block Change of service rotation or awarding of point	The referee passes the hand over the net and points to the player who committed the fault. Movement of arm in the direction of the team which will serve.
Ball In	The ball hits the court IN. A ball landing on or touching the sideline shall be IN.	Point with the hand and fingers downward.
Hold Ball	The ball was held, extended contact with ball, carried, lifted, pushed.	Lift slowly one hand with the palms facing upward.
Double Contact	Ball contacted twice in succession by the same player, double hit or roll of the ball.	Lift two fingers in vertical position.

End of Game	End of game.	Cross the forearms in front of the chest.
Service - Release Fault	Ball not thrown or released from one hand at the time of contact for service.	Lift the extended arm, the palm of the hand facing upward.
Time Out	Time out for rest TIME OUT.	Place the palm of the hand horizontally over the other hand, held in vertical position; thus forming a letter AT@. Follow by pointing with one hand to the team requesting the same out for rest.